

Hunting Test Etiquette (From the AKC Hunt Test Rulebook)

- Accept scores gracefully and consider non-qualifying scores as tools for improvement.
- Do not touch or pet a dog without the owner's permission.
- Keep dogs on leash when not being evaluated
- Never allow dogs to wander the grounds off lead
- Do not talk loudly while a dog is on the line or working, and please, no loud laughter.
- Do not applaud performance of a dog until after the dog has left the line.
- Do not crowd behind the handler
- Don't give tidbits or food to dog.
- Be courteous to other handlers, marshals, judges, and workers
